

David C. Hajduk, Ph.D. has almost thirty years of experience in religious education and youth, family life, and pro-life ministries. Since 1998, David has been a member of the Theology Department at Delbarton School in Morristown, New Jersey, and since 2002 has been the Director of Mission and Ministry. David also has served as an Adjunct Professor of Systematic Theology at Immaculate Conception Seminary School of Theology at Seton Hall University since 2008, teaching courses on the Theology of the Body, Pope John Paul II's Sexual Ethics, and the Theology and Spirituality of Marriage and Family.

David received a Bachelor of Arts degree magna cum laude from Seton Hall University in 1993, with a double major in Religious Studies and Philosophy. In 2003 he earned a Master of Arts degree in Systematic Theology from Immaculate Conception Seminary School of Theology at Seton Hall and was presented with the Pope John Paul II Award for Academic Excellence. In 2013, ICSST and Seton Hall University honored him with the prestigious "Many Are One" Alumni Award for his service to the Church. David completed his Doctorate in Theology in 2016 at Maryvale Institute in Birmingham, England, and wrote his dissertation on the thought of St. John Paul II.

David has spoken to thousands of people through his keynote addresses at conferences, presentations to high schools and colleges, talks to youth groups and Confirmation classes, seminars, retreats, diocesan workshops, parent nights, parish missions, and marriage preparation catechetical days. He has helped dioceses in New York and New Jersey revise their marriage preparation programs in light of St. John Paul II's Theology of the Body, and has personally prepared over 4,500 couples for the Sacrament of Marriage with his full-day catechetical workshops.

David is the author of God's Plan for You: Life, Love, Marriage & Sex (Pauline Books & Media, 2006), a book for teens on the Theology of the Body, which received the Catholic Press Association of the United States & Canada Book Award in 2007, has sold over 12,000 copies, and has been translated into Spanish and Polish. A fully updated and revised edition was released in 2018.

David resides in Belvidere, New Jersey. He and his wife, Shannon, have 11 children and homeschool.
